

SYSTEMIC CATARRH

(Peruna Cures Catarrh Wherever Located.)

Miss Mattie L. Guild, of Chicago, Ill.
Miss Mattie L. Guild, President Illinois Young People's Christian Temperance Union, in a recent letter from Chicago, Ill., says:

"I doubt if Peruna has a rival in all the remedies recommended to-day for catarrh of the system. A remedy that will cure catarrh of the stomach will cure the same condition of the mucous membrane anywhere. I have found it the best remedy I have ever tried for catarrh, and believing it worthy my endorsement I gladly accord it."

Catarrh of the abdominal organs is very much more common in summer than in winter time. This form of catarrh might be appropriately classed as summer catarrh. Summer catarrh includes catarrh of the stomach, catarrh of the liver, catarrh of the duodenum, catarrh of the upper bowels, and catarrh of the lower bowels. Catarrh of the stomach and catarrh of the duodenum is also called dyspepsia, in which there is an especial aversion for fatty foods. Catarrh of the liver is usually called liver complaint. Catarrh of the upper bowels, diarrhoea, of the lower bowels, dysentery.

Acute catarrh of the upper bowels in children is called cholera infantum; in grown people it is called cholera morbus. All these are exactly alike in their pathology. The remedy which will cure catarrh of the stomach will cure catarrh of the bowels and liver.

Peruna will cure catarrh wherever located. In pelvic catarrh it has been well deserved renown. Peruna will cure any case of diarrhoea, acute or chronic. Peruna is an absolute specific for dysentery. Peruna cures catarrh of the liver. Peruna cures catarrh of the stomach.

Mrs. L. A. Johnson, Philham and Ripley streets, Montgomery, Ala., says:

"I can tell you that I am almost entirely relieved of indigestion, that great foe which has tortured me for so many years, and can now eat anything I desire. Peruna has done me more good than any medicine I ever took in my life."

HELD IN SANDERS THEATRE.

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 13.—Routine drills were followed according to the schedule in today's camp of the naval brigade at Fort Rodman, and the day passed quietly enough.

The chill easterly wind which has blown across the bay all day has made the camp pretty cool. Indeed the pea-jackets of the men were not in the least uncomfortable tonight, and those who were unprovided with extra blankets felt the change in temperature severely.

Today's guard was in charge of the second division of Boston, with Lieutenant C. H. Bridgman officer of the day, and Lieutenant E. M. Dyer officer of the night. The guards were very strict, and their duty was well performed.

The order of the day for the morning included drills in boats, with oars and sails, for the first battalion, comprising Companies F, I, G, H and E, under Lieutenant-Commander Buffington, while the second battalion, consisting of Companies D, K, B, A and C, under Lieutenant-Commander Edger, were engaged on the parade ground in infantry drill.

This afternoon the first battalion was engaged in field artillery drill, and the second took the boats with oars. The seventh and third divisions passed their periods on board the Inca and the target practice tug.

The easterly wind kicked up quite a sea in the bay, but none of the jacks were seasick.

The dress parade and practice review which preceded retreat this evening was fairly well performed, although there was considerable room for improvement.

On Wednesday Governor Crane and his staff will visit the camp. The Governor will be met at the station by a staff officer and escorted directly to the camp, where, after dinner, he will review the brigade.

Tomorrow's guard will be in charge of the third division, with Lieutenant Charles H. Parker officer of the day, Lieutenant (J. G.) Timothy W. Sprague officer of the guard and Ensign Louis N. Frothingham supernumerary. Tonight the searchlights from the Amphitrite were played on the camp.

CUBANS ENTERTAINED BY "HOUSE OF AYER."

Splendid Reception Given by Lowell's Great Sarsaparilla Company.

ALFRED E. ROSE, TREASURER AND MANAGER, LOWELL'S GREAT SARSAPARILLA COMPANY.

FREDERICK AYER, PRESIDENT OF THE AYER COMPANY.

DR. J. C. AYER, FOUNDER OF THE HOUSE.

INCIDENTS CONNECTED WITH THE VISIT OF THE CUBAN TEACHERS TO LOWELL YESTERDAY, WHEN THEY WERE HOSPITABLY ENTERTAINED BY THE FAMOUS AYER SARSAPARILLA COMPANY THROUGH THE COURTESY OF ITS TREASURER AND MANAGER, ALFRED E. ROSE.

MANAGER ROSE WELCOMES THEM. HE HAD TO REFUSE HER.

Mayor Crowley Addresses Them on the Part of the City—Visitors Also Inspect the Hamilton Print Works and the Lowell Carpet Mills.

LOWELL, Aug. 13.—The Cuban teachers from Harvard were royally entertained by the "House of Ayer" here today, and the people of the city turned out in large numbers to assist in welcoming them.

Whatever they may have thought of the city, the teachers were certainly pleased with their reception. And they had reason to be. For everything was done to provide for their comfort—the "House of Ayer" thoroughly sustained its reputation for careful attention to detail.

The luncheon served upon their arrival was a most delicious and satisfying one. The Ayer plant was exhaustive, but not exhausting. The teachers found out all about the manufacture of sarsaparilla and cherry pectoral and other things peculiar to the Ayer family. They enjoyed the music of the orchestra at the same time.

Then they were taken through the Hamilton Print Works and later through the Lowell Carpet Mills. Surely the party must have been impressed by the extent of the industries of the Spindle City; and the youth of Cuba will have something to remember Lowell by besides the name of Dr. Ayer and the Ayer Company.

The reception of the day by the J. C. Ayer Company was given through the courtesy of Mr. Alfred E. Rose, the treasurer and general manager of the company. The young men and women who came here to get ideas of the education, the commerce and the business affairs of the United States left this city today more deeply impressed than ever with the greatness of American enterprise and industry, for they saw a great establishment, employing hundreds of people, both men and women, each happy and contented.

They arrived here on a special train and immediately were taken in carriages to the Ayer establishment, where Manager Rose and several others connected with the great concern were ready to greet them.

The first thing was a luncheon served upon their arrival, which was a most delicious and satisfying one. The luncheon, which was served in one of the large rooms of the Ayer establishment, made the Cuban educators feel much at home. There were words of welcome everywhere.

A band discoursed patriotic airs, and there was great applause when the teachers sang the national anthem.

The spokesman then called upon Acting Governor Hunt and explained that the object of the visit was to ask the government to open a road between Caguan and San Lorenzo, thus enabling the laboring class of the district to get to their homes.

Mr. Hunt replied sympathetically and promised that the government would do all in its power to relieve the situation. Orders were promptly issued for work to be begun on the road tomorrow, and for the employment of as many persons as possible who might apply from the district. Mr. Hunt also promised to see that no work of any sort has been in operation there for some time.

GIVEN PURSE OF $3600.

NORWOOD, Aug. 13.—The Rev. Father James D. Murphy, pastor of St. Catherine's Church, has just received from a sister member of the European tour, tonight, over $3600. He was presented with a check for $3600, to be used in the improvements which have been made in his house during his absence.

ment to the top of the building. After this they were taken through the Hamilton Print Works and the Lowell Carpet Mills, where they viewed everything with considerable interest.

At the Hamilton Company's office the party was met by Agent Oliver P. Moulton and a corps of guides, who led it, after introductions, to the printing plant, where they viewed everything with considerable interest.

From the Hamilton the teachers returned to the Lowell Manufacturing Company, where they were greeted by Agent Lyon, who initiated them into the mysteries of carpet making and showed them the reason why Lowell carpets have become so famous.

Features of the Visit.

The visit of the Cuban teachers to this city was the result of the failure of the City Council to make an appropriation for the purpose. Manager Rose of the Ayer company immediately decided to bring the teachers here, in order to show them something of the city and its industries.

An idea of Lowell's activity was also gained by the educators during their journey through the city, and everywhere they were greeted with the warmest and Cuban colors fondly entwined, as a result of which there were repeated demonstrations wherever they went in favor of the Stars and Stripes.

At 5:45 p. m. the Merrimack street station was crowded with people as the special train pulled out to bring back the Cubans to Cambridge. There were cheers for J. C. Ayer Company and Manager Rose, and enthusiasm prevailed for America and the great city of Lowell.

NEW YORK'S WELCOME.

Committee Appointed to Entertain Cubans There Next Week.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Acting Mayor Guisenbier consulted President Claussen of the Park Board and President O'Brien of the Board of Education today in reference to the entertainment of the 1200 Cuban school teachers who are coming from Cambridge to this city a week from tomorrow.

It was decided that the Mayor shall appoint a committee of ten for the reception of the teachers and their entertainment.

Each member of the committee will be expected to contribute $100 to defray their expenses of entertainment. The teachers will be taken on a tour of inspection to Columbia University and to Grant's tomb in the morning.

On returning in the afternoon they will be served with a luncheon, and the acting Mayor will make an address of welcome.

Then they will be taken down Broadway as the guests of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company. About noon the teachers will embark on one of the government transports.

SHE SEES HANNA.

Miss Jewett Appeals to Him to Indorse Anti-Lynching League.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Perhaps the most interesting visitor at the Republican National headquarters today was Miss Lillian Clayton Jewett, the so-called "Joan of Arc" of the Anti-Lynching League of Boston.

Miss Jewett's object in hearing the Republican head centers in their den was to gain their interest in the league.

When she came to the city, she was met by a delegation of the Anti-Lynching League, and she was taken to the headquarters of the league.

"ARE ITALIANS NO LONGER?"

New Haven's Naturalized Citizens Will Not Mourn for Humbert.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 13.—The Northern Italian League of this city has voted to take no part in the coming celebration in memory of King Humbert. One of the members gave the following reason for this action: "Our society does not intend to participate in the commemorative services. We are American citizens, and we hold that we should respect our naturalization papers and the great republic to which we look for protection."

NO TORONTO SERVICES.

Archbishop O'Connor Would Not Have British and Italian Flags in Church.

DEAF

25 YEARS—CURED.

I was totally deaf in my right ear for about 25 years. Had consulted many of the best specialists, who pronounced me incurable. Had taken treatment from some of the best doctors as well as from those physicians who advertise cures and pretend to cure catarrh of the ears, but all without the slightest benefit. About two years since I was fortunate enough to try Dr. Williams' treatment, which entirely restored my hearing so perfectly and permanently that at the present time I am able to hear a whisper in that ear ten feet distant. Given under my hand at 23 Cameron Ave., Somerville, Mass., this evening of July 19th, 1900. JOHN E. YOUNG. We have the exclusive right to use Dr. Williams' treatment, which gives hearing and speech to deaf mutes and positively cures every variety of deafness. Also prevents and cures blindness by mild means and without the use of the knife. Particulars with regard to either difficulty sent free on application. Consultation and examination free.
