WRITE FOR THE POST.

Cuban Teacher at Harvard Will Report Doings of Summer School.

The Cuban school teacher who is now a member of the Boston Post staff of re-porters. She will write exclusively for the Post of the doings of the Cuban teachers and of American institutions and customs from a Cuban view point.

WEEK BEGINS WITH HARD STUDY

Senorita Pilar Liuy, an excellent likeness of whom appears above, has been secured by the Post to give news, note and comment of the Harvard summer school from a Cuban point of view.

Senorita Liuy is a teacher in Havana and a correspondent for Havana papers.

Senorita Liuy accepted the commission in a letter to the editor of the Post, in which she says:

DELEGATES WROTH AT "LINCOLN'S" STORY.

Deny Disorderly Conduct, but Did Wave American Flag in Canada.

SAY TWO-THIRDS ARE ABSTAINERS.

Republican Trip.

John J. Hogan said: "Lincoln makes a serious mistake when he tries to throw mud at the Democratic party which was at one time his sponsor. Why did not Lincoln go to Philadelphia and tell us about how the delegates behaved there? If I understand the situation thoroughly, he was seldom seen at the Quaker City convention."
